

AP Laserphoto

Here's wool in your eye

A two-week-old lamb appears to be playing peek-a-boo with the long strands of her mother's wool coat during their stay at the University of California at Davis sheep barn. The mother was brought to the UCD campus from Virginia Tech University for genetic research work.

7-19-89-Sun Herald

Harrison Von Watkins

Harrison Von Watkins, 81, of Provo, died Friday, Feb. 10, 1989 in a Provo hospital facility.

He was born Sept. 16, 1907 in Provo, son of Albert Ernest and Mary Hannah Harrison Watkins. He married Lela Hardy. They were later divorced. He married Ione Tuckett. They were later divorced.

He was educated in Provo City schools. He worked as a machinist for the Union Pacific Railroad. He loved music and taught himself to play the saxophone. He played in the Union Pacific band and other musical groups.

He helped install the machinery and equipment in the Provo City Power plant.

His hobby was raising honey bees and he had served as Utah State Bee Inspector.

Survivors include one son, David M. Watkins, Hope Mills, N.C.; three grandchildren; two sisters and one brother, Cleve Watkins, Santa Clara; Myrth McFadden, Provo; and Afton W. Lerner, Spanish Fork.

Private family services were held Friday, Feb. 18, 1989 in the Walker Family Mortuary in Spanish Fork.

Burial was in the Provo City Cemetery.

Dean Gleave Shipp

JOSEPH, Sevier County — Dean Gleave Shipp, 77 of Joseph, died Feb. 10, 1989 at Reston Hospital Center, on Va.

He was born May 30, 1911 in Anna, Mo. to Tora Earl and Lillie Nebeker. He married Philip Royal Shipp May 24, 1933 in the Manti LDS Temple.

He graduated from Richfield High School and attended the University of Utah.

He was a member of the LDS Church.

Ruth Park Hallsey

PLEASANT GROVE — Ruth Park Hallsey, 75, died Feb. 16, 1989 in Pleasant Grove. She was born April 24, 1913 in Bingham Canyon, the daughter of Christopher and Sarah Jane Strain Park. She married Orval H. Hallsey, Nov. 28, 1936 in Salt Lake City. They were later divorced. She was a member of the Pleasant Grove 16th LDS Ward.

She was employed at the Utah State Training School for 20 years.

She is survived by a grandson, four nephews and a niece.

Service will be Monday, 11 a.m., in the Anderson & Sons Mortuary, 49 East 100 North, American Fork, where friends may call Sunday 6 to 8 p.m. and Monday one hour prior to services.

Burial in Pleasant Grove City Cemetery.

Marguerite Anderson

Marguerite Heninger Anderson, 90, died Feb. 17, 1989 in Salt Lake City of causes incident to age.

She was born Oct. 11, 1898 in Ogden, the fourth child of Lorin Grant and Jane Colvin Heninger. She married Reulon Anderson, Sept. 6, 1933 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He died in March 1980.

She was raised in the Ogden area and set up a homestead in McKinnon, Wyo. after her marriage. They later moved to Green River, Wyo., Provo, and moved to Salt Lake City after retirement.

She was an active member of the LDS Church and served in many callings, including Relief Society president.

She is survived by a son, Dean R. Anderson, Layton; three grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a brother, William Heninger, San Jose, Calif.

Service will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, where friends may call Tuesday, 10 to 11 a.m.